

The Great Fire of London Title

The fire starts. heading

<sup>a name</sup> Thomas Farriner lived in <sup>a place</sup> Pudding Lane he was a baker. 300 years ago, early in the morning, there was a fire it started at Pudding Lane in a bakery. The fire started in 1666 <sup>a</sup> Sunday 2nd <sup>a</sup> September in <sup>a</sup> London. A <sup>a</sup> girl called <sup>a</sup> Hanna started the fire by leaving the oven door open her dad is Thomas Farriner, the baker. The fire was an <sup>vocab</sup> injustice. London is the capital city of England.

The fire spreads. heading

Some <sup>a</sup> Rich people went on boats and poor people couldn't afford it so they went on horses. There were no fire-sighters in London so they couldn't put out the fire. Some people had buckets because <sup>con</sup> they will <sup>dug</sup> dig under ground and looked for pipes so they <sup>can</sup> try to put out the fire. Samuel Peyps was writing ~~every~~ everything in his diary and <sup>gave</sup> gave it to the King King Charles the II.

past tense

The fire dies. heading

Some people pulled down so some of the ~~fire~~ would houses so some as the fire would go <sup>out</sup> London made a fire service so they could put out the <sup>future fires</sup> fire and they made open squares in the city. They made gaps between the houses. When the fire went <sup>out</sup> everyone made stone buildings. The wind helped put out the fire by <sup>to</sup> putting some of the fire out. This last sentence doesn't make sense.