

The fire starts

The Great fire of London ^{Title}

The fire starts! heading

a) The fire started in 1666 on Pudding Lane in a bakery. ✓ The fire was ^{cl place} on ^{adv} ^{vocab} inferno! INFERNO. The houses were made out of wood ^{con} so they burnt down easily. ^{adverb} Samuel Pepys ^{cl name} wrote a diary to King Charles II about the fire and ^{adj} then he came up with a brilliant plan. ^{cl} The fire ¹ started Sunday 2nd of September in 1666. The Great fire of London happened 300 years ago. ✓ The fire started early in the morning. ✓

The fire spreads. cl

People ^{used} to pour buckets of water to ^{adj} put the fire out. ✓ They were terrified and people were pulling houses down. King Charles II came up with a brilliant plan. People went on boats ^{con} but the poor people couldn't ^{con} so they went on houses and carts. ✓

The fire dies. ✓

People built new stone so the fire would not spread easily.